REVIEW OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

During the month of May, county departments of public welfare received 413 applications for assistance, which, when added to the 291 pending at the end of April, made a total of 704 applications in process during the month. Of these, 323 were approved for assistance payments, 6 were referred to programs other than public assistance, 77 were denied or otherwise disposed of, and 298 remained pending at the end of May, (see Table II, page 5).

Assistance to 348 cases was discontinued during the month for various reasons as reported in Table III on pages 6 and 7 of this issue.

Old Age Assistance caseload and expenditures were slightly below those for April. 10,900 recipients of this aid received payments amounting to $432,287 for an average payment of $39.66, the highest in the history of the department.

1,929 families received $137,289 in Aid to Dependent Children payments in behalf of 5,056 dependent children. These figures were likewise slightly below corresponding data for the previous month. Average payments per family and per child were $71.17 and 27.15 respectively.

Between April and May, the number of recipients of Aid to Needy Blind increased from 438 to 442 (0.9%). The expenditure of $18,270 for this aid was 1.1% greater than the April expenditure, and the average payment of $41.33 per recipient represented an increase of 7 cents over the previous month.

General Relief subsistence caseloads and expenditures declined, largely as a result of seasonal factors. 1,372 cases received cash grants and disbursing orders totalling $37,871.61 for an average of $27.60 per case. The number of cases receiving this aid for May was 4.4% smaller than for April but was almost 20% greater than the number a year ago.
